Literacy Leadership

This session outlines Bev Brenna’s Top Ten Strategies for Literacy Leadership in Saskatchewan Contexts. Combining topics such as personal practical knowledge about reading and writing, Canadian resources, and making the most of limited funding, this session provides a review of key ideas and concludes with time for situation-specific questions.

Bingo: 😊

Work with a partner to list Canadian children’s/young adult books that fit the following categories (Canadian publisher & by Canadian author and/or illustrator)

Call Bingo when 1 row or column is filled; Double Bingo when 2 are filled

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Your favorite children’s/young adult book</th>
<th>Names of three Canadian children’s/young adult authors.</th>
<th>A Canadian book that was made into a movie</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A book for young people set in Canada</td>
<td>Names of three Canadian illustrators for young people’s books.</td>
<td>A Canadian book you remember someone reading to you</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A book for young people set in Saskatchewan</td>
<td>A Canadian children’s/young adult playwright.</td>
<td>A Canadian literary work for young people that’s been censored</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Resources

The Aboriginal Rainbow Model of Literacy by Priscilla George (2002)

What really matters in fluency: Research-based practices across the curriculum by Richard Allington (2009)

https://www.researchgate.net/publication/33051907_Secondary_Literacy_Across_the_Curriculum_Challenges_and_Possibilities

https://www.psychologytoday.com/ca/blog/reading-minds/201702/three-myths-about-reading-levels

A Narrative Inquiry into Nlaka’Pamux (Interior Salish) Children’s Responses to Online Digital Curriculum Featuring Nlaka’Pamux Parents and Elders M.Ed. thesis by William Rowluck
https://harvest.usask.ca/handle/10388/7523

Building Adolescent Readers by Kelly Gallagher (2009) (DVD)

The Canadian Children’s Book News

CM Magazine (online review of Canadian children’s literature) https://www.umanitoba.ca/cm/

Teaching Reading to Adults by Pat Campbell (2002)

Reading Instruction in America by Barbara Ruth Peltzman (2015)

Recommended Canadian Indigenous Authors with Growing Body of Work for Young People: Nicola Campbell; Danielle Daniel; Julie Flett; Melanie Florence; David Robertson; Richard Van Camp; Katherena Vermette